Welcome to Southwestern Christian University

Letter from the President

Dear Student:

It is my pleasure to welcome you to Southwestern Christian University. I am thrilled that you have chosen SCU to continue your education and prepare for your destiny! My team and I are working hard to provide for you rigorous educational programs, competitive athletic teams, deep spiritual discipleship, and a safe environment on campus. During your time here, I encourage you to take an active role in your education and in our community. Southwestern celebrates that life outside of the classroom plays an important role in the development of the whole person. It is our mission to create and support a learning community that challenges individuals to transform themselves, as well as the world around them. You are joining a community that is guided by a lifestyle covenant whose tenets are based on the Bible as taught and interpreted by our founding denomination, the International Pentecostal Holiness Church. The university policies and procedures as outlined in the Student Handbook are intended to inform you of the expectations Southwestern has for its students. As part of your acceptance into SCU, you have expressed consent to adhere to the policies and procedures outlined in this handbook, as well as other university publications.

Three words are at the heart of this university: Scholarship, Spirit, and Service. Our faculty and staff anticipate great accomplishments from you, as we hope you expect the same from yourself. Strive for excellence, reflect upon your goals, and use your talents and energy to serve God, others, and our community. This year, we begin a journey that will promote the holistic Southwestern 7 Wellness Program as an integral part of the educational opportunities for students and faculty/staff. The Southwestern 7 Wellness Program believes wellness is a multidimensional concept that includes providing education to promote the seven dimensions of health. These are defined as a balance of spiritual, physical, social, intellectual, emotional, career, and environmental health. We pledge to assist and support you throughout your journey!

Thank you for being here at SCU! We are here to serve and support you. Our staff commits to praying for you and encouraging you as you fulfill your calling and destiny in Christ.

Best wishes for a productive and enjoyable experience!

God bless,

Dr. Tom L. Murray
President, Southwestern Christian University

I. INTRODUCTION

PHILOSOPHY & PRINCIPLES OF THE STUDENT HANDBOOK

You hold in your hand the SCU Student Handbook. This book contains the principles, policies, and procedures that all students should know during their time as SCU Eagles. Like all institutions, SCU has clear expectations and responsibilities for our students. An expectation is “a belief that someone will or should achieve something” while a responsibility is “a thing that one is required to do as part of a job, role, or legal obligation.” In other words, you have agreed to play by our rules and this is your playbook.

The origin of our principles is Scripture. The purposes of our policies are protection and freedom for both the student and institution. The outcomes of our procedures are order, accountability, and holistic well-being for every person. We believe in the importance of personal growth and will continue to provide all students with the resources, skill training, and education they need to accomplish their dreams and ambitions, all through a Christian world-view.

All students are held responsible for knowing all Southwestern Christian University principles, policies, and procedures as published in this Student Handbook, the University Catalog, or as may be posted or otherwise distributed to the student body. Ignorance of University rules is not an excuse for violations. The University reserves the right to change any of this Handbook’s content, whenever the University deems it appropriate to do so in furtherance of the Mission, Objectives, Articles of Faith, administration of Southwestern Christian University, or the welfare of its students.

The philosophy of the Student Handbook is to help guide the student toward success at SCU and beyond. The rules and regulations set forth in this handbook are boundaries which protect the institution, employees, and students. Stepping outside of those boundaries will result in some corrective measures to ensure the continued success of the student.

The Four Guiding Principles that govern all aspects of the Student Handbook are:

1. God Honoring (Exodus 20:1-11; Deuteronomy 6:4-9; Mark 12:28-30-34)
2. Neighbor Respecting (Genesis 1:26-27; Leviticus 19:9-18, Mark 12:28-34)
3. Individual and Communal Protecting (Exodus 20:12 -17; Micah 6:8; Ephesians 2:10; Colossians 3:13; 1 Peter 2:16)
4. Civil Understanding (Mark 12:13-17; Romans 13:1-7; Acts 5:29; 1 Peter 2:13-23)

Southwestern Christian University approaches each disciplinary action based on the facts and circumstances of the particular events at issue. Therefore, students are given notice, and accept upon admission, that the failure of the University to enforce, or its decision not to enforce, any rule or regulation or its delay in exercising any right, power, or privilege regarding such enforcement shall not operate as a waiver of the right to strictly enforce such rules or regulations in the future.

Furthermore, the decision of the University to exercise leniency, grant appeals, suspend a disciplinary action, or partially exercise any right, power, or privilege relating to such rules and regulations shall not preclude any other, further, or different exercise thereof, including the decision to strictly enforce any rule or regulation and may not be argued by a student as precedent in an effort to avoid the application or strict enforcement of such rules and regulations.

UNIVERSITY HISTORY

Southwestern Christian University was established in 1946 by the International Pentecostal Holiness Church as the Southwestern Bible College. In the 1960s, the student population increased and, as various junior college programs were developed, the institution received accreditation from the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education. In 1973, the junior college received accreditation from the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools and was approved as a four-year baccalaureate-level degree-granting college in the field of religion in 1979. In the fall of 1981, Southwestern Bible College became the Southwestern College of Christian Ministries and relocated to Bethany, Oklahoma. The name of the institution was changed to Southwestern Christian University in 2001. The university regularly expands its curriculum offerings each year and continues to grow as a Christian liberal arts institution.

UNIVERSITY AFFILIATION

Throughout its history, Southwestern Christian University has sought to serve the kingdom of God by offering educational programs to Christians of various denominational backgrounds. The university urges Christian ecumenicity as a commitment to the basic doctrines of historic Christianity. At the same time, SCU believes it has a theological contribution and educational ministry that is unique to the heritage of its sponsoring denomination, the International Pentecostal Holiness Church (IPHC). Southwestern Christian University interprets the Bible through the prism of the IPHC doctrine and theological perspective. For more information, please visit iphc.org

ACCREDITATION

Southwestern Christian University is accredited by The Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education as well as The Higher Learning Commission, a Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. Southwestern Christian University enjoys the full endorsement of the General Department of Discipleship Ministries of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church as an approved educational entity for training ministers, missionaries, and Christian workers to serve the church around the world. Southwestern Christian University is approved by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security for the admission of international students and is approved by the State Accrediting Agency of Oklahoma for the admission of eligible veterans.

University Theological Stance

Primarily, SCU affirms universal Christian truths as found in the Apostle's Creed and as prescribed and described in the Bible.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to hell.
The third day he rose again from the dead.
He ascended to heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty.
From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy universal church,

the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

As part of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church, SCU recognizes and follows a Pentecostal, Wesleyan-Arminian hermeneutic of the Bible, which affirms the IPHC's 14 Articles of Faith, as listed below. Students, faculty, staff, and administration are to honor the Articles of Faith on and off campus.

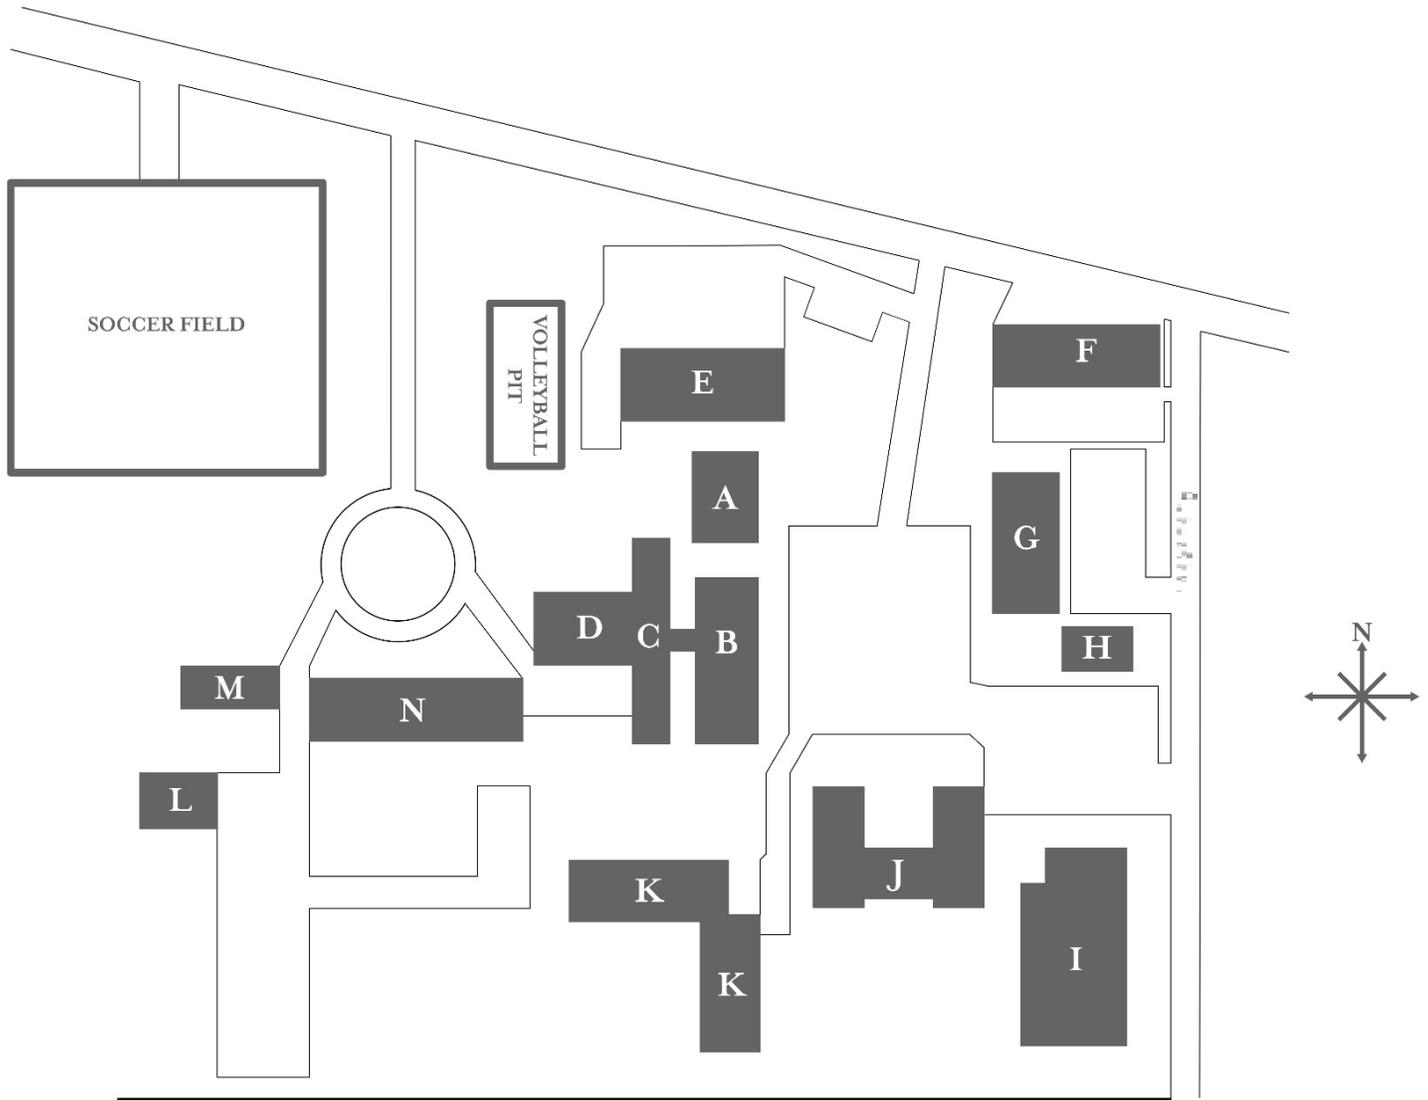

1. We believe there is but one living and true God, everlasting, of infinite power, wisdom and goodness; Maker and Preserver of all things, both visible and invisible. And in the unity of this Godhead, there are three Persons of one substance of eternal being, and equal in holiness, justice, wisdom, power, and dignity; the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.
2. We believe that the Son, who is the Word of the Father, the very and eternal God, of one substance with the Father, took man's nature in the womb of the blessed virgin; so that two whole and perfect natures, that is to say, the Godhead and the manhood were joined together in one Person, never to be divided, whereof is one Christ, very God and perfect man, who actually suffered, was crucified, dead, and buried, to reconcile the Father to us, and to make atonement, not only for our actual guilt, but also for original sin.
3. We believe that Christ did truly rise again from the dead, and took again His body, with all things appertaining to the perfections of man's nature, and ascended into heaven and there sits until He shall return to judge all men at the last day.
4. We believe the Holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father and the Son, is of one substance, majesty and glory with the Father and the Son, very and eternal God.
5. We believe in the verbal and plenary inspiration of the Holy Scriptures, known as the Bible, composed of sixty-six books and divided into two departments, Old and New Testaments. We believe the Bible is the Word of God, the full and complete revelation of the plan and history of redemption.
6. We believe that eternal life with God in heaven is a portion of the reward of the finally righteous; and that everlasting banishment from the presence of the Lord and unending torture in hell are the wages of the persistently wicked (Matthew 25:46; Psalm 9:17; Revelation 21:7, 8).
7. We believe that Jesus Christ shed His blood for the remission of sins that are past, for the regeneration of penitent sinners, and for salvation from sin and from sinning (Romans 3:25; 1 John 3:5-10; Ephesians 2:1-10).
8. We believe, teach and firmly maintain the scriptural doctrine of justification by faith alone (Romans 5:1).
9. We believe that Jesus Christ shed His blood for the complete cleansing of the justified believer from all indwelling sin and from its pollution, subsequent to regeneration (1 John 1:7-9).
10. We believe in sanctification. While sanctification is initiated in regeneration and consummated in glorification, we believe it includes a definite, instantaneous work of grace achieved by faith subsequent to regeneration (Acts 26:18; 1 John 1:9). Sanctification delivers from the power and dominion of sin. It is followed by lifelong growth in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ (2 Corinthians 4:16; 2 Peter 3:18).

11. We believe that the Pentecostal baptism of the Holy Ghost and fire is obtainable by a definite act of appropriating faith on the part of the fully cleansed believer, and the initial evidence of the reception of this experience is speaking with other tongues as the Spirit gives utterance (Luke 11:13; Acts 1:5; 2:1-4; 8:17; 10:44-46; 19:6).
12. We believe in divine healing as in the atonement (Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:16, 17; Mark 16:14-18; James 5:14-16; Exodus 15:26).
13. We believe in the imminent, personal, premillennial second coming of our Lord Jesus Christ (1 Thessalonians 4:15-17; Titus 2:13; 2 Peter 3:10-14; Matthew 24:29-44), and love and wait for His appearing (2 Timothy 4:8).
14. We believe it is the responsibility of every believer to dedicate his life to carrying out the work of the Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20; Mark 16:15-20; Acts 1:8).

Praxis: Through Student Life, students will be provided opportunities and experiences to develop spiritually, intellectually, emotionally, and physically.

Spiritually: Students will be provided opportunities and experiences to further develop their understanding of who God is and their relationship to Him.

Intellectually: Students will be provided opportunities and experiences where they encounter a variety of worldviews and interpretive models to develop both their reasoning skills and love of learning.

Physically: Students will be provided opportunities and experiences to further develop habitual self-control and self-discipline with regards to their bodies.

Emotionally: Students will be provided opportunities and experiences to assist in their emotional development, self-awareness, and passions.

Vision: To see every student grow and thrive in their Christ-centered identity.

Values: Respect, Trust & Community

ADVOCACY & DISCIPLINE

As prescribed and described in the Bible, SEAS believes that students deserve respect, accountability, and correction. These three aspects are in place to ensure students are seen and heard while also protecting the university's mission, ideas, and goals for students. SEAS acts on behalf of both students and university.

IV. THE LIFESTYLE

The Four Guiding Principles

SCU is a Christ centered academic institution where students are expected to follow the principles, policies, and procedures of the university. The Four Guiding Principles are the standard through which all principles, policies and procedures adhere:

1. God Honoring (Exodus 20:1-11; Deuteronomy 6:4-9; Mark 12:28-30-34)
2. Neighbor Respecting (Genesis 1:26-27; Leviticus 19:9-18, Mark 12:28-34)
3. Individual and Communal Protecting (Exodus 20:12 -17; Micah 6:8; Ephesians 2:10; Colossians 3:13; 1 Peter 2:16)
4. Civil Understanding (Mark 12:13-17; Romans 13:1-7; Acts 5:29; 1 Peter 2:13-23)

The Four Principles Explained

Students are expected to apply the Four Guiding Principles to their lives while enrolled or associated with SCU, both on and off campus.

1. God Honoring: SCU affirms the existence of the one true and living God as revealed in Jesus Christ and confirmed by the Holy Spirit.
2. Neighbor Respecting: SCU affirms that both male and female persons are made in God's image and have intrinsic value, worthy of dignity and respect.
3. Individual and Communal Protecting: SCU values both the individual and the community; therefore, events, activities, disciplinary processes, etc., are designed for both the betterment and advocacy of the student and student body.
4. Civil Understanding: SCU affirms the legislative powers of local, city, state, and federal authorities and adheres to all levels of governmental laws that do not conflict with basic Christian beliefs.

If a particular issue is not explicitly addressed in the Student Handbook, the university reserves the right to address and handle the matter according to the above listed principles.

Any student accepted to Southwestern Christian University is expected to adhere to Protestant Evangelical Christian principles depicted in the Bible and this Student Handbook:

1. A strong commitment to high academic standards.
2. A willingness to cooperate accordingly with the demands of the Koinonia Program
3. An understanding that acceptance and attendance at this university is a privilege granted to the student and not a right of the student. That privilege can be withdrawn through the established disciplinary process of the university to safeguard the ideals of scholarship and the moral atmosphere assumed by this lifestyle.

The university reserves the right to interpret conduct that is in violation of these regulations.

God-Honoring Students (1 Corinthians 10:31)

One of the unique qualities of Christian higher education is that we are a community that strives to follow the example of Jesus Christ and the teachings of the Bible, through a Wesleyan-Arminian, Pentecostal lens. Therefore, practices that are prohibited according to Biblical principles provide a framework for student behavior and are not acceptable for students enrolled at SCU. Jesus Christ, the Son of God is the model and example of how we should live in relationship with God and our Neighbor.

The Lifestyle Covenant Explained

Regardless of a student's faith, creed, or ethnicity, all persons admitted, attending, or associated with SCU are expected to uphold the Lifestyle Covenant and the rules governing the University. It is a contractual agreement to adhere to and follow the principles, policies, and procedures of the institution.

Lifestyle Application: On & Off Campus

The Lifestyle Covenants applies to all students:

1. While enrolled in classes for the Fall Semester (including Thanksgiving), Interterm, Spring Semester (including Spring Break), and Summer Term;
2. Who are representing SCU in any off-campus events, such as mission trips, internships, study abroad, and athletic or academic activities;
3. Who are not enrolled in classes but are living on campus, and not checked out of their room.

The fact that the Lifestyle Covenant can only apply to students while they are enrolled or in residence in no way indicates that SCU believes that contrary behavior is acceptable during non-enrolled periods. SCU recognizes that it is inherently the responsibility of the individual to make such behavior decisions. The essential role of individual judgment, discernment, and recognition of personal accountability to God throughout SCU cannot be overemphasized. Behaviors while not enrolled may affect a student's ability to re-enroll or continue at SCU.

Off-campus rights and freedoms of students involve the responsibility to display conduct and behavior that reflect favorably on them and SCU. Accordingly, the University reserves the right to take disciplinary action in response to behavior off campus that violates University standards and policies or adversely affects SCU and/or the pursuit of its objectives. SCU also reserves the right to take disciplinary actions for violations of Lifestyle Covenant by graduates awaiting degrees and students who withdraw from school while a disciplinary matter is pending.

Lifestyle Covenant

*Jesus said to him, 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.'
This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'
Matthew 22:37-39*

As part of the registration process, the student will sign the Lifestyle Covenant. Failure to sign the covenant is grounds for dismissal from SCU. The university believes that as Jesus Christ becomes the center of the student's life, the student will commit to a lifestyle that cultivates spiritual, ethical, social, physical, and academic growth.

SCU Lifestyle Principles

Spiritual Principle - I acknowledge that SCU is a Christian institution of higher education that uses the Bible as its foundational text regarding principles, policies, and procedures as described in the Student Handbook, which I will follow. I will seek to encounter, embrace, and embody Christ in developing my relationship with him.

Intellectual Principle - I acknowledge and agree that SCU expects academic excellence from all students and does not tolerate academic deception. I commit to excellence and will not participate in academic dishonesty.

Communal Principle - I acknowledge and agree to cultivate good social relationships and participate in community life at SCU. Understanding that my behavior affects community life, I will give respect and consideration to fellow students, staff, and faculty.

Imago Dei Principle - I agree to develop my body with sound healthy habits by embracing a healthy lifestyle. I acknowledge and agree that SCU's stance on matters relating to a person's intrinsic value and dignity is founded on the Bible, which prohibits various activities and practices, which include but are not limited to:

- * Discrimination
- * Harassment
- * Pornography
- * Sexual misconduct (premarital and extramarital sexual relationships, LGBTQ+ behavior, etc.)
- * Use of tobacco, alcohol, vapes, illicit substances and/or drug-related products
- * Any other behavior deemed inappropriate by scripture or SCU.

Civil Principle - I agree to live with integrity and to abide by the rules and regulations adopted by the University's administration as stated in the Southwestern Christian University Student Handbook. I agree to obey all federal, state, and local laws. I understand the university reserves the right to require the withdrawal/dismissal of a student at any time, if in the judgment of the university, such action is deemed necessary to safeguard SCU's ideals of scholarship or its spiritual and moral atmosphere as a Christian university.

Representation Principle – I acknowledge that Southwestern Christian University promotes biblical values, morals, and ethics. I will abstain from putting myself in or associating with environments that are in conflict with the image, goals, and mission of SCU. This can include but is not limited to: bars, clubs, parties, social media or other environments encouraging behaviors that the university finds harmful.

V. THE KOINONIA PROGRAM

The Koinonia Program (Acts 2)

Koinonia is a Greek word that means “Christian fellowship” and the image it creates is of a community that is safe, intentional, and God-honoring. The Koinonia Program is designed for students’ holistic maturation, giving specific attention to student’s growth spiritually, intellectually, physically, and emotionally.

Spiritually: students will be provided opportunities and experiences to further develop their understanding of who God is and their relationship to Him.

Intellectually: students will be provided opportunities and experiences where they encounter a variety of worldviews and interpretive models to develop both their reasoning skills and love of learning.

Physically: students will be provided opportunities and experiences to further develop habitual self-control and self-discipline with regards to their bodies.

Emotionally: students will be provided opportunities and experiences to assist in their emotional development, self-awareness, and passions.

All opportunities and experiences will be available for all student participation.

The SCU Community

SCU is committed to following Jesus Christ. "Love your neighbor as yourself" is the foundation stone our community. We believe that community is born of Neighbor-centered practices, strengthened when members:

- Live with integrity
- Practice confession and forgiveness
- Attempt to live in reconciled relationships

- Submit to biblical instruction

As women and men of SCU, students are not expected to be perfect people, but rather to be people in active pursuit of integrity and growth, in dynamic relationships with the living God and with others in community. Those in leadership at SCU are eager to serve by coming alongside you and offering support, accountability, and, when necessary, loving discipline, in order to help you grow. SCU is committed to serve you with your best in mind.

Christ’s Example of Community (Luke 2:52)

The Gospels depict Jesus Christ living out his earthly life in Community with his people. Christ both honored God and lived in respect of his Neighbor. SCU believes that all persons have the opportunity to join that Community through confessing Jesus as Lord, believing that God raised Christ from the dead, and committing to building their life, morals, and activities around the person of Jesus Christ.

Mandatory Chapel Attendance (Hebrews 10:25)

VII. Disciplinary Procedures

Interpretation and Revision

Any question of interpretation regarding Disciplinary Processes, the Lifestyle Covenant, and/or any other University policy shall be referred to the VPSEAS for final determination.

While there are some severe circumstances which will call for permanent separation of the Student from the University, it is SCU's desire in the Disciplinary Process for students to experience forgiveness, reconciliation in relationships, accountability for behavior, and restoration back into the SCU. Interpretation and Revision of the Disciplinary Procedures and Redemptive Discipline policy follow the Four Guiding Principles.

SCU faculty, staff, and administration has the right to confront and address other student behaviors that are viewed as dangerous, destructive, unbiblical, or inconsistent with the mission of the University.

Redemptive Discipline (Proverbs 12:1; 26:4-5)

Students who fail to comply or adhere to any Student Handbook principle, policy, or procedure are subject to appropriate Disciplinary Action.

Additionally, SCU reserves the right to help individuals who are struggling with personal issues, relationships, or an issue that would normally be handled through the Disciplinary Process. When a student comes to an administration, faculty, and staff member on their own initiative, there may be no formal Disciplinary Action. However, that student will need to comply with the Redemptive Disciplinary Process. SCU will develop a plan of objectives that will be used to aid the Student in overcoming his/her area of struggle.

This policy does not apply to individuals who are facing Disciplinary Action due to an impending investigation or individuals who are confronted by the institution and the representatives for inappropriate behavior.

As a part of the Redemptive Disciplinary Process, the student will submit to the following guidelines:

1. Agree to sign a Redemptive Discipline Contract
2. Agree to an ongoing mentoring relationship with a faculty or staff member
3. Agree to personal counseling or counseling at an off-campus facility at the student's expense
4. Agree to sign waiver of confidentiality for attendance monitoring
5. Agree to stop punitive behavior
6. Agree to sanctions that may be imposed to help the or provide restitution to any victims

If a student refuses to accept or agree to the redemptive discipline process, the Student is subject to further Disciplinary Action including probation, suspension, or dismissal. The VP of SEAS or University Disciplinary Committee reserves the right to render a decision even if the student does not comply.

Community Accountability

Any member of the SCU community should report student misconduct. Reports should be submitted to the DSL as soon as possible after the event takes place, preferably within 5 days of the event.

University Disciplinary Committee

The University Disciplinary Committee (UDC) is a standing committee of the following members:

1. One member of the President's Cabinet (the VPSEAS who will serve as chairman)
2. Vice President of Institutional Integrity and Strategic Projects
3. Two faculty members

4. Director of Resident Life
5. The President of the Student Government Association
6. Resident Life Student Representative

The UDC will hear cases for Disciplinary Violations involving Class B offenses. The chairperson will conduct the meeting. The DSL will present the case to the committee including evidence(s), incident reports, and previous violations, etc. The DSL will remain present with the committee, but will not take part in voting on the committee's decision.

Southwestern Christian University Disciplinary Actions

- 1. Student Handbook Warning

- 3. Disciplinary Notice

Student(s) on Disciplinary Notice will meet with the DAL, the UDC, or VPSEAS, and receive a Disciplinary Contract with specified sanctions.

- 4. Disciplinary Probation

Student(s) placed on Disciplinary Probation are no longer in good standing with SCU until completing the necessary tasks required in their Probation Agreement. Individuals on Disciplinary Probation are not permitted to represent SCU in any extracurricular capacity.

Failure to meet Probationary Agreement terms within the allotted time frame will result in further disciplinary measures assigned by either the DSL or the UDC. SCU reserves the right to require students to contact their parents and inform them of any probationary case.

- 5. Disciplinary Suspension

The student is involuntarily suspended for a stated length of time. The student may not spend the night on campus and must vacate campus, with possessions, within 24 hours. Time extensions may be given at the discretion of the DRL, DSL, or VP of SEAS. Suspension does not include summer semesters. Students are eligible to reapply for admission the subsequent semester after the suspension's time sanctions conclude. Upon readmittance, the student will return under probation. Conditions of readmission shall be stated. Readmitted suspended students are subject to immediate dismissal if another Major Violation is committed. Parents of the Student may be notified of the Student's status. No extracurricular or co-curricular leadership will be permitted during this period. The VPSEAS has the authority to assign suspensions.

Tuition and room/board costs are forfeited as specified by SCU's refund policy. Sanctions that deny a student the privilege to continue or to re-enroll at SCU will be communicated to the Registrar and noted as part of the student's transcript for the duration of the dismissal or probation period. Suspension duration will be determined by the UDC and/or VP of SEAS.

6. Disciplinary Dismissal

The Student's enrollment is terminated and is required to vacate campus, with possessions, within 24 hours after the dismissal is announced. Time extensions may be given at the discretion of the DRL, DSL, or VPSEAS. SCU reserves the right to require Students to leave the campus immediately. Dismissed Students may apply for readmission to SCU, but are subject to further review and may be under probationary status. Dismissed students are not eligible for refunds of any kind and the dismissal will be noted on official transcripts. The decision to dismiss a student will be made by the VPSEAS, UDC, and/or the President's Cabinet.

7. Removal from University Housing

SCU reserves the right to remove a Student from University Housing. Access to University-owned facilities may also be restricted. Guardian(s) of Student(s) may be notified. Students removed from University Housing are prohibited from University Resident Facilities, including common areas. ## Legal Ownership

Southwestern Christian University has legal ownership of the contents of all files stored on its information and technology resources as well as all content transmitted via these systems. Southwestern Christian University may access all such information without prior notice whenever there is a genuine business need.

1. No Responsibility for Monitoring Content of Information Systems

Southwestern Christian University reserves the right to remove any message, file, database, graphic, or other material from its information and technology resources. At the same time, Southwestern Christian University has no obligation to monitor the information content residing on or flowing through those systems.

- a. Privacy Expectations and Information Stored on Southwestern Christian University Systems At any time and without prior notice, Southwestern Christian University reserves the right to examine archived electronic mail, personal file directories, hard disk drive files, and other information stored on Southwestern Christian University information and technology resources. Similarly, at any time and without prior notice, Southwestern Christian University reserves the right to examine or monitor any device attached, for any reason, to the Southwestern Christian University network. This examination is performed to ensure compliance with internal policies, to support the performance of internal investigations, to comply with legal requirements such as a subpoena or court order, and to assist with the management of Southwestern Christian University's systems. It is also possible that other individuals, organizations, and agencies, with permission from Southwestern Christian University administrators, may likewise access or monitor these same systems whenever there is a legitimate business need of Southwestern Christian University for them to do so.
- b. Southwestern Christian University uses access controls and other security measures to protect the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of the information handled by information and technology resources. In keeping with these objectives, Southwestern Christian University maintains the authority to
  - i. Restrict or revoke any user's privileges.
  - ii. Inspect, copy, remove, or otherwise alter any data, program, or other resource that may undermine these objectives.
  - iii. Take any other steps deemed necessary to manage and protect those systems.
- c. This authority may be exercised with or without notice to the involved users. Southwestern Christian University disclaims any responsibility for loss or damage to data or software that results from its efforts to meet these security objectives.

2. Intellectual Property

- a. Copyright Laws: Unless placed in public domain by its owner(s), Section 117 of the 1976 Copyright Act protects software programs. Software is also protected by the license agreement between the owner and purchaser. It is illegal to duplicate, copy, or distribute software or its documentation without the permission of the copyright owner.
- b. Software: Respect for the intellectual work and property of others has traditionally been essential to the mission of academic institutions. As members of the academic community, Southwestern Christian University values the free exchange of ideas. Just as Southwestern Christian University does not tolerate plagiarism, Southwestern Christian University strongly supports strict adherence to software vendors' license agreements and copyright holders' notices. If internet users or other system users make unauthorized copies of software, the users are doing so on their own behalf since all such copying is strictly forbidden by Southwestern Christian University.
- c. Fair Use: Unless permission from the copyright owner(s) is first obtained, making multiple copies of material from magazines, journals, newsletters, and other publications is forbidden unless this is both reasonable and customary. This notion of "fair use" is in keeping with international copyright laws.

3. Discipline for the Misuse of University Technology

- a. All technology used on campus is the sole property of SCU. Anyone who accesses any of the following without permission, servers, websites, emails, and computers, will be subject to being disciplined by the University Disciplinary Committee and could be expelled.
